

Colonial Heights (VA) Public Schools Announcement of Superintendent Search

The School Board of Colonial Heights (VA) Public Schools invites applications and nominations for the position of Superintendent. The anticipated start date is July 1, 2019.

THE CITY

Colonial Heights, located in southeastern Virginia and originally a part of Chesterfield County, became a town in 1926 and an incorporated city in 1948. Its current charter as a fully-independent city was granted in 1960. Colonial Heights' history goes back much further, however, as it was the site of significant battles during both the American Revolution and the Civil War.

THE DIVISION

Mission: Colonial Heights Public Schools, in partnership with the home and the community, will provide each student with a relevant, quality education. The skills taught shall enable each student to become a self-sufficient, productive member of the global society prepared to enter the job market and/or continue his/her education.
