Contest this winter!

Thank a Teacher Art Contest

The Thank a Teacher Art Contest is the yearly kick-off to the statewide Thank a Teacher campaign sponsored by the Virginia Lottery, and in partnership with The Supply Room and the Virginia PTA. In its first three years, the art contest has received nearly 6,000 entries from student artists across the Commonwealth. Three winners received a cash prize, money for their school's art department, and each of their designs was featured on thank-you notes distributed by students, parents and the general public during National Teacher Appreciation Week.

Three Levels:

One top-prize winner will be selected from each level:

- Elementary school
- Middle school
- High school

Prizes:

- Money for school's art department
- Design featured on thousands of thank-you notes distributed across the state
