

Education Elements

Resources on Leadership During the Pandemic and Virtual Learning

Education Elements has curated resources and is providing opportunities for open-ended learning, collaborative problem solving, and sharing as districts reorganize to support learning continuity and virtual learning because of the impact of COVID-19. Resources are organized by leadership, teachers, operations, and virtual learning and can be searched here.

Webinars

Leadership:

- Webinar on April 1st at 2pm ET - Building Innovative Structures Within Distance Learning Constraints
- Webinar on April 2 at 1pm ET - Equity and School Closings
- Webinar on April 8 at 4pm ET - Trauma-Informed Leadership
- Webinar on April 13 at 3pm ET - Focusing on What is Important to Students Right Now by Jaime Casap & David Hardy
- Webinar on March 24 at 11am ET [This webinar has passed - Check out the resources and video] - Leading Through Uncertainty: Decision-Making

Virtual Learning

- Webinar on April 1 at 1pm ET - Virtual Learning Walks to Support Virtual Instruction
- Webinar on April 7 at 2pm ET - SEL and the Shift to Virtual Learning
- Webinar on March 24 at 2pm ET [This webinar has passed - Check out the resources and video] - Planning for Long-Term Virtual Learning if COVID-19 Extends School Closures
- Webinar on March 26 at 12n ET - [This webinar has passed - Check out the resources and video] First 20 Days Of Virtual Learning

Teacher Retention & Recruitment

- Webinar on April 3 at 2pm ET - Why Psychological Safety Is More Important Than Ever For A Staff Navigating Crisis
- Webinar on April 16 at 3pm ET - Recruiting and Retaining Teachers With An Employee Value Proposition